

Gloria Weber

Education:

Ed.S., Mathematics Education, The University of Florida, 1997

M.Ed., Mathematics Education, The University of Florida, 1987

B.A., Mathematics Education, Trenton State College, 1977

Points of Interest:

Gloria began her career teaching fifth and sixth grade in New Jersey. She moved to Florida and taught seventh and eighth grade for three years. She then transferred to high school and has been teaching various high school classes for the last twenty-six years. Along with her public school instruction Gloria has also taught Secondary Math Methods and Problem Solving at UF college of Education.

Mrs. Weber has presented numerous professional development workshops to mathematics teachers and other educators. Her presentations include problem solving, reading and writing in the mathematics classroom and high school/elementary buddies.

Honors:

District "Teacher of the Year" P.K. Yonge DRS

Selected for participation in National Science Foundation sponsored workshop at Cornell University on Mathematics Education Reform

Selected for "Honors Workshop for Mathematics Teachers" University of Florida

Kappa Delta Pi, Honor Society in Education